

KAPAWE'NO FIRST NATION OIL & GAS COMPANY LTD.

BUSINESS PROFILE

Kapawe'no First Nation Oil and Gas Company Ltd. is a 100% Kapawe'no First Nation owned Limited Liability Company. It was incorporated in Alberta July 2003.

Kapawe'no First Nation is situated within the Traditional Territory of Treaty No. 8 (1899), and along the North West shore of Lesser Slave Lake Alberta. Having its own natural gas on reserve lands is where the company grew from. The First Nation decided to explore its opportunities in that sector and created the company.

The longstanding traditional custom leadership of Kapawe'no First Nation serve as the Kapawe'no First Nation Interim Oil and Gas Board of Directors; they are Chief Frank T. Halcrow (serving 40 years), Councilor Sydney Lee Halcrow (serving 27 years), Councilor Peter Chalifoux (serving 17 years).

Our company provides services in the following areas both on and off reserve, but not limited to:

1. Developing Oil field Leases
2. Heavy Equipment Work
3. Aboriginal Consultation Services
